

JILL'S FAMOUS LAYERED TACO DIP

TYLER STEWART
Director of Sales,
The Venetian® | The Palazzo®
The Sands Expo, Las Vegas

“ My Mom (Jill) would serve this dip anytime there was a major sporting event on TV and was especially a big hit during football season. It goes great with a bowl of chilli. ”

SERVES
6

JILL'S FAMOUS LAYERED TACO DIP

INGREDIENTS

- 1 brick of low fat cream cheese
- ½ cup of low fat mayo
- ½ cup of low fat sour cream
- ¼ cup of taco seasoning
- 8 – 10 oz of salsa
- 1 package of shredded Mexican blend cheese
- 2 jalapenos
- 2 scallions
- 1 small can of black olives

MID-WEST

- 1 Mix cream cheese, mayo, sour cream, 2 diced jalapenos, and taco seasoning into a bowl
- 2 Spread mixture evenly into a 8" round casserole dish
- 3 Evenly add layer of salsa. Enough to cover the first layer
- 4 Add shredded cheese on top of the layer of salsa. Again, enough to cover the salsa layer
- 5 Finish with diced black olives and thinly sliced scallions on top of the cheese
- 6 Cover and place in refrigerator for at least 3 – 4 hours (overnight is even better) for flavors to blend and the dip to firm up

#IMEXRECIPES