

Amanda L. Gourgue, MBA, MELP, CMP, LEED AP is a revolutionist! She started Meeting Revolution in 2008 and specializes in business strategy and corporate responsibility.

Amanda has seventeen years of experience in the hospitality and meetings industry. She has consulted, presented, and written articles in the areas of marketing, corporate responsibility, healthy buildings and event planning. In addition, she served on the committees to create the APEX/ASTM Environmentally Sustainable Meeting Standards and the ISO 20121 Event Sustainability Management System Standards. She is currently an IMEX-GMIC Green Awards judge. Amanda completed her Masters of Business Administration degree in Sustainability and her Masters of Environmental Law and Policy.